

COMPETITOR INFORMATION – 2024

Permission to Compete in National Events in Canada

Equestrian Canada Requirements

Competitors must hold a valid EC Sport License at the applicable level. The level of license required is dependent on the division in which the competitor /horse is competing

Competition Division	EC Sport License	Horse Recording /annual activation	Drug Testing	EC EVENTING STARTER LEVY
Entry & Local	Bronze	Not Required	EC Required	$15.00
Pre-Training	Bronze	Not Required	EC Required	$15.00
Training	Silver	required	EC Required	$15.00
105M	Silver	required		$15.00
Preliminary	Gold	required	EC Required	$15.00
Intermediate	Gold	required	EC Required	$15.00
Advanced	Gold	required	EC Required	$15.00
FEI (CCI-S/CCI-L/CCI)	Platinum	Passports Per FEI rules.	FEI Required per FEI Rules	$15.00
Eventing Tests	Bronze	Not Required	EC required	Not Required

Entry Form

Competitors must use the official 2024 EC Eventing Entry Form posted on the Equestrian Canada web site

Eventing Starter Levy

Mandatory for all divisions and all entries. Revenues from starter levies are used to support National and High Performance programs

EC -Eventing Horse Trials Participation Policy

Competitors and horses must meet or exceed the eligibility requirements to compete in the applicable division as described in the 2024 EC Horse Trials Participation Policy available on the EC web site. -
Eventing -Competitions

Permission to Compete in National Events in the USA

Canadians, who plan to compete at eventing competitions in the USA in 2024 must:

1. Be a current member in good standing of Equestrian Canada.
2. Must hold a current Equestrian Canada Sport License at the applicable level.
3. Must be member of the USEA in order to compete at USEA recognized competitions.
4. Horses must be registered with the USEA with a Full or Limited registration status to compete at novice or above levels.
5. If competing in nationally sanctioned competitions – ie HTs -Must meet minimum eligibility requirements criteria and regulations of the USAE/USA Equestrian

Permission to Compete in FEI Events in Canada or Foreign Country

Refer to Criteria for competing in CCI-L , CCI-S and CCI FEI competitions in 2024